mour Hall, will be married tomorrow night at the Houghton home. She will have a pretty procession, her attendants being all of them uncommonly good looking young women. They will be Miss Hall of Honolulu, Mrs. Harold Chickering, Miss Florence Henshaw, Miss Rose Kates and Mrs. William Thirton White.

Mr. and Mrs. Hall will leave on the next boat for Honolulu to reside.—S. F. Call, Nov. 15.

Mr. and Mrs. Sylvanus Rarnhm and Miss Elsie Cyfford are spending the week-end at the Fairmont and were guests at the Greenway ball last night.—Chronicle.

J. Barrett Fithian of Paris is in Santa Barbara for a short visit. Mrs. Fithian did not accompany her husband to America, as his trip is purely a business one, but remained at their chateau, in Southern France, where they will spend the winter.—Chronicle.

Mr. and Mrs. Fithian and party passed through Honolulu in their yacht a few years ago.

Violet luncheons, chrysanthemum teams, orchid balls, together with several weddings, and two important engagements, have made the week just closed the most notable thus far on the year's social calendar, and presage a season of unswerving gaiety and brilliance. The week opened auspiciously with a pretty tea, which Miss Suzanne Kirkpatrick gave in the Laurel Court of the Fairmont, and at which she entertained Miss Margaret Williams, Miss Maud Wilson, Miss Dorothy Chapman, Miss Harriet Alexander, Miss Dorothy Baker, Miss Ruth Richards, Miss Christine Pomeroy, Miss Marion Zeile, Miss Elizabeth Woods, Miss Gertrude Perry, Miss Ethel McAllister, Miss Ruth Boericke, Miss Louise McCormick and Miss Mildred Whitney.

In the evening Mr. and Mrs. Henry Dutton entertained at dinner for Miss Alice Macfarlane of Honolulu, who has been the recipient of much social attention since her arrival a few months ago. Mr. and Mrs. Dutton's guests on this occasion were: Mr. and Mrs. Walter E. Dean, Mr. and Mrs. Worthington Ames, Mr. and Mrs. George Newhall, Mrs. Willard Brown and Miss Enid Gregg.—Chronicle.

So many have been the number of applications at the Pleasanton, that an extra cottage of eight rooms has been engaged by the management in order to accommodate the increasing guests. The Bungalow is fast nearing completion and already every room has been reserved.

Miss Florence Cluff will entertain at a theater party to-morrow evening in honor of Miss Jean Tyson, whose engagement to Harry Welhe was recently announced. Others who will enjoy Miss Clifford's hospitality are Miss Kathleen de Young, Harry Welhe, C. de Young and Robert Turner.—Chronicle.

Edwin O. Childs, Oriental representative of the St. Francis Hotel Company, arrived in the city last night from a two year's trip in the Far East.—Chronicle.

A temporary visitor to San Francisco who is receiving much social attention is Mrs. Uriel Sebree, wife of Admiral Sebree, who reached here from Honolulu several days ago and is at the Fairmont for a week prior to her departure for the South.—S. F. Chronicle, Nov. 21.

Society is interesting itself in the coming concerts of Miss Adele Case, who is also being made the recipient of much social attention. On Wednesday Mrs. E. Sadler gave a tea in her honor at the Fairmont, at which she entertained about a dozen guests.—Chronicle.

A dinner was given by Mr. Wade in the private dining room of the Pleasanton Hotel on Thursday for six. The decorations consisted principally of scarlet carnations, a centerpiece, and red candelabra making the table softly attractive.

Miss Nannie Winston who has returned from a long visit on the mainland and has again taken up her apartments at the Moana Hotel, is being warmly welcomed home by her many friends, and a great number of teas, luncheons, and dinners are being planned in honor of one of Honolulu's most popular ladies.

Mrs. Bannaman, a sister of Miss Smith of Punahou is making an extensive visit to these islands. Mrs. Bannaman is from the East, and is a contralto vocalist of note on the mainland. She is the motif of a number of social functions which are being planned in her honor.

Mrs. C. B. Wood entertained at a luncheon yesterday in honor of Miss Nannie Winston. Among the guests were Mrs. Harry Lewis, Mrs. Widdfield and the guest of honor.

Mr. Frank Atherton departed on Tuesday for Kauai where he will spend a week or ten days.

Miss Jessie Kaufmann who has been the house guest of Mrs. A. G. Hawes, Sr., for about a year, leaves in the Mongolia for San Francisco. Miss Kaufmann has won for herself many ardent admirers and warm friends during her stay in Honolulu and will be greatly missed in social circles.

Miss Kaufmann is a novelist of note and besides being a good conversationalist, is extremely talented, and is sweet, and very charming.

An informal but exceptionally pretty tea was given on Monday afternoon by Miss Ada Kopke, in compliment to Miss Meyer of Dresden, who is visiting her grandmother Mrs. Mist. A coterie of girl friends assisted Miss Kopke in receiving. They were Misses Reney Catton, Sarah Lucas, Lily Paty, Margaret and Eleanor Waterhouse, and her sister Mrs. Ernest Ross.

The hostess looked lovely in a gown of mulberry satin, and the guest of honor was sweet in a girlish lingerie frock with a dainty hat to match. Individual tea tables were provided for the guests who called to meet the charming girl and the refreshments were served by small children. Among those present were Mrs. Sam Baldwin, Miss Alice Hedemann, who looked stylish in an ecru frock with a picture hat embellished by black and white plumes, Miss Mosher, attired in a gown of Old Rose taffeta, and a blank picture hat, Miss Ethel and Miss Alice holding in pure white, Misses Irene Fisher, Beatrice Castle, Jessie Kennedy, Irma and Marie Ballentyne, Dorothy Wood, Anna Tucker, Blanche Soper and Eunice Pratt.

Mrs. F. T. P. Waterhouse presided as hostess at a small but elaborately appointed dinner on Thursday evening at her home at Waikeke, the color scheme being wrought throughout in yellow. At this season, the golden chrysanthemum plays an important part in the house beautiful, and its wealth of gorgeous display, was in evidence on this occasion, a large centerpiece with streamers of yellow Liberty satin ribbon and place cards representing the same, being enhanced by the pale yellow shaded candelabra which decked the table.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Clive Davies, Mr. and Mrs. George Davies and David Anderson.

After dinner the guests motored to the concert at the Davies Memorial Hall.

Invitations are out for a tea to be given next Monday from four to six by Miss Waterhouse in honor of Miss Burwell.

Mrs. Robert Shingle is looking very charming these days, and in a quiet way is being extensively entertained by her many friends with whom she is a prime favorite. Her beauty and charm of manner are accessories worth mention since they have gained for her a large circle of ardent admirers both here and on the mainland.

The members of the Bahai Movement met on Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Graham, Thurston Avenue. The concert that evening somewhat withheld a few, but there were a good many to take advantage of the splendid lecture given by Mr. Remey assisted by Mr. Struvap. The Bahai movement has gained great ground and people of prominence and of all religions have approved of its creed as comprising the best of every belief. Several previous meetings have been held at the residences of Mrs. Augur, Miss Agnes Alexander, Mrs. Dwight Baldwin, Mrs. Steere, and two public meetings were called at the Kiohona Art League, and the Alexander Young Hotel.

Mrs. Harry Colburn Turner of Los Angeles has arrived from the mainland to be the house guest of Judge and Mrs. Bailou over Christmas.

Haleiwa was again the mecca for a large number of motor parties last Sunday, nearly eighty partaking of the bountiful luncheon at this popular house.

The dance Saturday evening at Haleiwa was very successful. A party
